

RICHARD DUNN

Richard Dunn is Vice-President, Regulatory & Government Relations for the Canadian Division, Encana Corporation. Richard is responsible for federal and provincial government relations and policy development.

Richard graduated from the University of British Columbia with a degree in applied science in mechanical engineering and from the University of Calgary with a Master's degree in chemical and petroleum engineering.

Richard serves on the Board of Directors of Geoscience BC and the Calgary Quest Society, a school for children with special challenges. Richard and his wife Beverly have three children and currently reside in Calgary.